Principal's Desk

Students' behaviour is shaped by many influences, but parents play one of the most important roles in guiding it. At school, students' behaviour reflects their attitudes toward discipline, respect, responsibility, and learning. Parents strongly influence how students behave. From an early age, children learn values, habits, and social skills at home. When parents provide consistent discipline, emotional support, and clear expectations, students are more likely to develop self-control and respect for others. Parents who show interest in their child's education—by communicating with teachers, monitoring homework, and encouraging effort—help build confidence and positive behaviour in school.

On the other hand, lack of parental guidance, excessive pressure, or neglect can contribute to behavioural problems. Children may feel insecure, frustrated, or misunderstood, which can appear as misbehaviour at school. Therefore, cooperation between parents and schools is essential. When parents act as role models and work closely with educators, students are more likely to develop good behaviour, strong character, and a positive attitude toward learning.

JVK ANNUAL DAY 2026: HONOURING TALENT, DEDICATION, AND ACHIEVEMENT

JVK commemorated its much-anticipated Annual Day – Euphoria 2026 on 10th January. The event was honoured by the gracious presence of an eminent panel of dignitaries, including Mr. Vinod V. Sr. Gnana Selvam, Managing Trustee of the DFT Group of Institutions; Mr. Vamsi, an esteemed member of the Professional Speakers Association of India (Chennai Chapter) and a certified IELTS trainer; and Mr. Robert Clive, Director of the DFT Group of Schools.

The programme unfolded as a captivating artistic narrative themed on the nine fundamental emotions of mankind (Navarasas), portraying the depth and diversity of human experience through meticulously choreographed performances. A significant highlight of the occasion was the Prize Distribution Ceremony, which recognised students who demonstrated exemplary excellence in academics, outstanding achievements in co-curricular and extracurricular pursuits, and commendable commitment through 100% attendance. In addition, the relentless dedication and pedagogical excellence of the facilitators were duly acknowledged, especially for their remarkable contribution in securing centum results in the board examinations.
